

Medicos Battle Again---Taft to See Soldiers Play---Aviation

IT'S A BAD DAY TO BE UNHEALTHY

EVERYTHING THAT LOOKS LIKE A DOCTOR WILL BE AT MEDICOS' SECOND GAME.

If you're just aching to see a doctor, gentle reader, would be best to can your desire until Wednesday, for the return game between the two medical colleges of Virginia is scheduled for Tuesday afternoon, and nothing that looks like a physician will be floating loose in the capital city.

Determined to break the unsatisfactory tie which marked the conclusion of their first encounter, both the University College chaps and the Medical College of Virginia sawbones have been practicing religiously for this struggle Tuesday afternoon, and there will probably be some scoring.

The teams are strong and in the pink of condition, and a hot game is expected. Every van dyked physician, every physician who would like to have a van dyke board, and every physician who has shaved off his van dyke beard will be there. Hold on to your health one day more.

The sawbones line-up Tuesday will be something like this:

Medical College	Position	University College
Cofer	center	Collier
H. E. Davis	right guard	Ruff
Hankins	right tackle	Noblett
Reaper	right end	Collins
J. H. Davis	left half	Barham
Ross	right half	Puttrill
Hardy	fullback	Woodhouse

Average weight of both teams, 160 pounds.

After the game the student bodies of the two colleges will paint the town red with "the green."

INDIANS TO USE MANY NEW PLAYS

CARLISLE REDSKINS TAKE FRESH HEART AND COURAGE FOR BROWN GAME.

CARLISLE, PA., Nov. 22.—The Indians are putting in the last few days before the Brown game in hard practice especially in the new plays to be used against Brown on Thanksgiving Day, and they are confident of victory. Houser, the Indian fullback who has been out on account of injuries, is back in the line-up, though Newsham, his substitute, is still kept hard at it so that he can replace Houser at any time. The spirit of the Indians has revived wonderfully after their poor showing in the Harvard Law School and the Johns Hopkins games, and the students believe they will be able to win from Brown.

A. A. U. TO BID FOR OLYMPIC GAMES

WORLD'S GREATEST ATHLETIC MEET MAY BE HELD IN CLEVELAND SIX YEARS HENCE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The announcement that the Amateur Athletic Union at its meeting here had decided to put in a bid for the Olympic games of 1916 and had selected Cleveland, O., as the place for holding the games, if they should be awarded to the United States, came as a distinct surprise.

The matter is to be referred to the international committee of the A. A. U. for final action, but there is little doubt that the international committee will endorse the plan and agree to ask for meeting. The committee is composed of Barrow S. Weeks, of the New York A. C.; Gustavus V. Kirby, of Columbia University; Everett C. Brown, of Chicago; Joseph E. McCabe, of Boston; and James E. Sullivan. These men are delegates to the union and voted in favor of the plan yesterday, so there is little doubt they will act favorably upon the request.

ATTELL REGARDS MOORE SERIOUSLY

FOR FIRST TIME ABE TALKS OF PROWESS ON AN OPPO.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—If Abe Attell is not in perfect condition when he meets "Pal" Moore at the Fairmont Athletic Club a week from tomorrow, it will not be due from lack of spurring himself. When Attell opened his training camp at Johnstone's road house, it looked like a veritable bee hive of clever boxers. He brought Danny Goodman with him, but at any time from now on, Attell will have Jimmy Carroll or Lew Powell to box with. The most significant thing about the approaching battle is that for the first time in his career Attell talks seriously about the prowess of an opponent. He has seen Moore in action and knows that he is a dangerous lad.

FALLS TO DEATH FROM ELEVATOR

GEORGE W. SMITH HAS SKULL FRACTURED AND DIES WITHOUT REGAINING CONSCIOUSNESS.

Seized with an attack of vertigo, while running an elevator in the Hasker and Marcuse factory of the American Canning Company, on Venable street, George W. Smith, aged fifty-two years, of 2307 Fairmount avenue, fell from the lift shortly after three o'clock Monday afternoon, and received injuries which resulted in his death at the Memorial hospital a few hours later.

The accident was discovered by a machinist who noted the elevator running without a conductor. He investigated and found Smith's body lying on the first floor, clear of the shaft.

Dr. B. A. Ford was summoned, and found that Smith's skull had been fractured at its base. The injured man was hurried to the Memorial hospital, where he died without regaining consciousness.

COLLINS NOT TO MAKE JOURNEY TO CUBA

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 22.—Eddie Collins and old Father Neptune are strangers, for the time being, and this means that Sir Eddie will not be one of the invading Athletic players who are to test the skill of the Cuban ball towers. Collins stated today that he would be unable to make the trip with the club, notwithstanding that $500 and all expenses were held out as an incentive. Dread of seasickness is the real reason why Collins has thrown up the trip.

Eddie and Mrs. Collins honeymooned to Bermuda on their wedding trip, and the voyage was so rough that they both had an awful battle with seasickness. That trip has left a vivid impression on Collins of how rough old Neptune can cut up when he wants to, and Eddie decided to abandon the idea of being one of the Athletics who are going to sail from New York Saturday direct for Havana.

MEAT MEN BEAT THE GEMSETTERS

Throwing their hooks into the first game and driving a couple of skewers through the third, the Meat Packers cleared their way to victory and snatched the bowling series of Monday night from the strong Jewelers team of the Newport alley.

Left we fought in the warmth of our praise for the beef men, the gem setters "howled some howls," and showed early in the melee that they too were out for blood and the fat of the fry. With the same accuracy with which they would smite a 2,000 pound bullock and lay him low, just so did the members of the carnivorous tribe lambast the timber at the end of the glazed alley, and hickory dropped in great avalanches thereafter.

Application on the part of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad employees and employees of the Richmond Virginian to enter the league was turned down by the officials of the new league Monday night.

The scores of Monday's games and the standing of the teams to date follows:

ALL IN READINESS FOR AERIAL SHOW

FAIR GROUNDS INTEND CLEAR-ED OF OBSTRUCTIONS AND A GRAND EXHIBITION IS EXPECTED.

Work of getting the Fair Grounds infield free of obstructions so as to provide clear starting and finishing spaces for six aviators who will fly in Richmond first aviation meet, will be concluded Tuesday afternoon, and the birdmen will begin flying promptly at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

All the birdmen, with the exception of John B. Molsant, crosser of the English channel and cirler of the Statue of Liberty, are in Richmond, as are ten flying machines. Charles Hamilton, intrepid air voyager, Garros, Barrier, Simon and Frieble, the lesser known, but equally daring cloud ticklers, reached the city Monday and housed their aeroplanes in a huge tent pitched on the site, from which Ralph Johnstone started his flights at the Fair Grounds. The tent is as large as a circus canopy, and not only houses the flying machines comfortably, but allows the aviators and their mechanics ample room to make inspections and repairs.

Wednesday's crowd is expected to be large, for a number of specialties in air monkeyness will be offered. Nothing especially foolhardy will be attempted on the initial day, because the aviators want to get the lay of the land, the heft of the wind and some other essential points down fine before they cut loose and begin to rip the atmosphere around the Fair Grounds into smithereens.

The children from Mrs. Gill's Orphan Asylum, the public schools of the city and other schools will attend Wednesday's performance free of charge, they say. The aviators, in addition to the children, will be the International aviators, the corporation which will give the up-in-the-air show and brother of the aviator who has taken front rank in the world of aerial capers. In addition to the children, every Confederate soldier who appears at the Fair Grounds in uniform will be admitted free.

The meet will last four days, during which Richmonders will see more kinds of flying in more kinds of machines than they can shake a stick at, and the birdmen will furnish them for discussion in capital city homes to last many years.

TWO WILL CLAIM THE CHAMPIONSHIP

PENNSYLVANIA AND HARVARD BOTH THINK THEY HAVE BEST FOOTBALL RECORD.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 22.—Statisticians are figuring to-day on the all-American football eleven and the Eastern championship. Probably both problems will have to wait for the Thanksgiving Day games, particularly the Pennsylvania-Cornell game and Brown-Carlisle.

Yearly these theoretical discussions vex the doers, and as regularly the experts fail to agree. This season the Eastern championship will be claimed by Pennsylvania and Harvard, while the decision on the all-American eleven probably have to wait on Walter Camp, Yale's football authority. His Western trip affording him the opportunity of seeing in action the elevens of Minnesota and Michigan, two teams likely to be forgotten by Eastern doers.

CHOYNSKI JOINS HAMPHATS' RANKS

DAVENPORT, IOWA, November 22.—Joe Choynski has joined the ranks of the fighter actors and will spend the winter months in a certain little affair at Reno came about.

Choynski made his first appearance here last night and brought before the public with him Miles McLeod, the young Missouri who aspires to take up the "white man's burden." McLeod was "discovered" by Jim Corbett and Choynski will train him between shows.

POWELL "COMES BACK" AND BEATS YOUNG OTTO

FUMMELED TO A FRAZZLE IN SIX ROUNDS, CALIFORNIAN WON IN LAST THREE.

NEW YORK, November 22.—Sports to-day hailed Lew Powell, the clever California lightweight as one of the very few men who can "come back" in the same fight in which he is apparently whipped. In his battle last night with Young Otto, a local pugilist at the Olympic A. C., Powell was licked to a finish in the first six rounds. Powell "came back" in the seventh and won out in the last three rounds by sheer courage and aggressiveness.

Otto started out like a winner but lost heart when he saw his antagonist standing up after the fierce onslaught of the first six rounds. He had tired himself out and the rest of the fight was easily Powell's.

Billiard Match to Murphy.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 22.—Murphy, of Philadelphia, defeated Mason, of Boston, in a three-cushion billiard league game here Monday night by the score of 50 to 44. Murphy's high run was 8 and Mason's 3.

MR. TAFT WILL SIT IN GRAND STAND

PRESIDENT TO SPEND 45 MINUTES AT SOLDIERS' GAME WEDNESDAY.

President Taft will leave the Jefferson Hotel at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, go to Broad Street Park to see the game between the First Regiment and the Fortress Monroe Regiment, and remain there in the grandstand until a little before 4 o'clock.

Announcement of this fact—instead of Mr. Taft's merely driving through the park, was made by Major Lawrence Price, of the First Regiment, who will escort the chief executive to the ball yard, and Manager Cousins, of the First Regiment team.

Tuesday morning.

When the President arrives the pigskin chasers will probably bury the hatchet and join in saluting and honoring him. The President, when he goes to the Army-Navy game in Philadelphia, spends his time with the United States Army ROTC and the other half with the United States Navy. The commander-in-chief of the Army-Navy-Marine Corps and militia is not supposed to play any favorites. It is expected that Mr. Taft will spend part of his time Wednesday with the ROTC and the other half with the ROTC and the other half with the ROTC.

Manager Cousins said Wednesday that he expected a hot and furious war from the first whistle, and that there would be no let-up in the hammer and tongs going until the final whistle of shape, although mfw fwy gong.

The First Regiment eleven is not in the best of shape, Fullback Payne and Halfback Caulder, two of the many stars, being out because of injuries, but the rest of the team is fast and heavy, and promises to make things interesting for the husky artillery school men.

The game will start promptly at 2 o'clock and will be a line of sport which is equalled perhaps only by the Thanksgiving Day game, great crowd is expected out. Richmonders are due to turn out in force and help the First Regimenters win down or remodel, in which event militia in Tidewater Virginia.

BOTH ELEEVENS IN SPICE YOUR TRIM

VIRGINIA AND CAROLINA IN PINK OF CONDITION FOR BATTLE HERE THURS. DAY.

Have you ever noticed how a university football team gets licked by college elevens of great inferiority and just when the rumor is going the rounds that the big team is all shot to pieces and has no chance to win its best game of the season, it begins to take on added spirit, life and grit, and gets into the most excellent condition for the supreme encounter?

That's just what has happened with the University of North Carolina and the University of Virginia elevens, which clash at Broad Street Park Thanksgiving Day.

Both teams have been playing indifferent football all season and failed to come up to expectations. Loud howls and oburgations have come up from the grandstands and student bodies after the games.

But now that the eve of the great game to decide the Inter-State championship is upon us, Carolina, which has been battered to shreds by lighter teams which would have been drubbed by large scores, looks large and formidable, and the Tar Heels are going wild with confidence and enthusiasm over the splendid condition of the team.

The University of Virginia eleven has not shown the class expected of it this season. The Indians crippled them up pretty badly and they were not in trim for the Georgetown game. They were not in trim for the Georgetown game.

But, when Virginia realizes she has to battle with Carolina for the bi-State championship—listen to the encouraging reports and the laudation of the leading writers at Charlottesville. The Orange and Blue men are strong, confident, gritty, fast and dashy. They will come to Richmond in prime condition for a game the like of which Richmond has probably never before seen.

Virginia is determined to win and her men are as fit as fiddles to play the funeral dirge of Carolina. The White and Blue team from Chapel Hill will be greatly changed outfit from the one Richmond saw licked to a frazzle by the V. P. I. aggregation of huskies three weeks ago.

Friends, it's going to be a pretty battle, and you'd better tell the good hauler or mother or lady to postpone the perambulation of the national bird with the chestnut stuffings until, let's say, about 6 o'clock. The game will probably be over about 5 o'clock, but it will take you fully an hour to finish telling those benighted individuals who did not go to the game, about the hair raising runs and tackles, and it will require some little time for the heart action to get down to normal again.

Ketchell's Body Exhumed.

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., Nov. 22.—The body of Stanley Ketchell, middleweight champion, who was murdered near Springfield, Mo., has been exhumed by three brothers, John, Leon and Alexander Ketchell.

They explained they had heard Stanley was beaten to death and not shot. The brothers reported to-day that they found the bullet holes, and also evidences of a club having been used about Stanley's head. The body was immediately reburied.

LOCKE WILL STAY WITH PITTSBURG

PIRATES' SECRETARY DECLARES BOSTON PRESIDENCY CAN'T LURE HIM.

PITTSBURG, PA., Nov. 22.—"It will take more than the presidency of the Boston Club to lure me from Pittsburgh," Secretary William H. Locke, of the Pittsburgh Nationals, declared today.

"I have the stock in my safe and I don't believe I have to borrow from John K. Tener or anybody else when I want to make a business deal," John P. Harris, new owner of the Doves.

In these statements to-day was knocked in the head the report that the governor-elect of Pennsylvania had bought the Boston National League Club from John S. C. Dyer, and that the lieutenant of Barney Dreyfuss is to be put at the head of the beauntown outfit.

John M. Morin, of Pittsburgh, has been offered the presidency of the club, yet has not declined to accept it," said Owner Harris to-day.

Old Ball Player Dead.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 22.—Jack O'Brien, who was one of the catchers of the Athletic baseball team when it won the championship of the American Association in 1883, died Monday in a hospital in this city, and will be buried from the Elks' Home on Wednesday.

After playing as a battery partner of the famous "Bobby" Matthews, pitching star of 1883, O'Brien played with Brooklyn, Baltimore and other clubs.

Nelson Says He is in Good Condition.

STRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 21.—"I'm in great shape," wired Battling Nelson to Tommy Ryan to-day in asking the retired middleweight champion to be his chief second at the Owen Moran in San Francisco next Saturday. Ryan declined, as he has charge of a club which holds bouts here next Monday night.
